

“ —

I joined TEI to connect with my in-house peers. Those connections, and the network of professionals I now had access to as a result of joining TEI, enabled me to do my job better by relying on the peer-to-peer shared experiences, and expert knowledge you can only get from being a member of TEI...

Member Voice

Wayne Monfries
Senior Vice President, Global Tax, Visa Inc.

Whether you lead the tax function of your company or are just starting your tax career, TEI has opportunities to enhance your network and benefit your career

With 55 chapters and 11 regions, TEI makes it easy to connect where you work and live.

From solo tax departments to global teams, TEI connects you to peers who understand your world—across borders and around the globe.

In a world of constant change, tax professionals rely on TEI to be ready for what's next.

Connect. Engage. Impact.

YOU BELONG AT TEI

www.tei.org

The Tax Technology Seminar brings together hundreds of in-house tax professionals, tax technologists, service providers, and technology companies each year.

TEI committees function more like dynamic working groups rather than traditional committees. Joining one of these member-only groups allows you to collaborate closely with peers on focused topics.

Tax Executive features in-depth articles from leading subject matter experts, engaging roundtables, TEI news, and more!

Core Benefits

Networking

access to more than 6,500 in-house tax professionals across the globe

Chapters

exclusive access to your local network and events

Continuing Education

chapter, regional and institute level events

Committees

16 tax technical committees

Liaison Meetings

direct access to government officials

Advocacy

influence critical tax issues

TEI Engage

TEI's member-only online community

Thought Leadership Bulletin

TEI's bi-weekly bulletin featuring content from leading tax firms

Tax Executive

TEI's bi-monthly professional journal

Chapters are where members connect most—through local networking events, in-person learning opportunities, and meaningful peer connections.

Your membership isn't limited to just one location—join additional chapters as a participant to stay connected and informed about what's happening in nearby cities.

TEI has advocated on behalf of 60 taxpayer issues in the past two years. The effectiveness of TEI's advocacy efforts is directly related to the active involvement of our members.

A bi-weekly publication compiling the top stories, legal alerts, and studies from our more than 70 sponsors, as well as recent TEI advocacy.