2019 Federal Tax Course – Level 2

Dear Colleague:

Beginning on Monday, July 22, TEI's Education Fund will sponsor its advanced U.S. federal income tax course, 2019 Federal Tax Course – Level 2, at the Georgia Tech Hotel and Conference Center in Atlanta. The course, which was last offered in 2017, is designed for in-house tax professionals with five or more years' experience and is a natural follow-up to TEI's Federal Tax Course – Level 1.

In planning each year's course, members of TEI's Federal Tax Committee carefully review the evaluations from prior years' offerings and make changes as warranted. And while the course retains its basic structure from years past, the faculty has updated the materials to take into account changes in the applicable laws, regulations, procedures, and court decisions. In particular, the 2019 course materials have been thoroughly updated to reflect many of the significant reforms enacted in Public Law 115-97 (the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act), including subsequent regulatory and other guidance promulgated thereunder.

Practical, succinct, and reasonably priced—hallmarks of a TEI educational program—the course will feature an outstanding faculty and unparalleled networking opportunities. I am confident that participants in TEI's 2019 Federal Tax Course – Level 2 will find it comprehensive, intellectually challenging, and professionally rewarding.

The substantive programming, faculty, and other details of the course are described in the accompanying brochure, including registration procedures and deadlines. Please note, however, that TEI does not offer this advanced-level course every year and applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis. By registering early, you can ensure your participation in an educational program that—time and time again—has proven to be of the highest quality and benefit to TEI members.

Sincerely,

2019 Federal Tax Course – Level 2

GENERAL INFORMATION

Eligibility

This course is limited to members of TEI and other in-house tax professionals. (Individuals engaged in private law, accounting, or other consulting practice are ineligible to attend). No partial or split registrations are permitted. Registration forms without payment will not be processed by TEI.

Format

This course will feature a combination of lectures and open discussions. Detailed outlines of each session and other supplementary materials will be provided to students upon their arrival. Pens, pencils, highlighters, and notepaper will not be provided. Casual attire is suitable for all educational sessions and other functions. The classrooms are air conditioned, so a light sweater may be appropriate.

Applications

Enrollment is limited and registrations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Applicants are encouraged to register at www.tei.org. The application should be typed; if TEI is unable to read the application, its processing may be delayed. Use of the U.S. Postal Service's overnight mail is acceptable. Other overnight mail services (such as FedEx) will not deliver to TEI's P.O. Box. Because of TEI's lockbox procedures, applications should not be sent to TEI's street address.

Students will receive an email confirmation upon their acceptance to the course. Should maximum enrollment be reached and TEI cannot accept your application, you will be notified immediately. If neither type of notice is received within two weeks of the date the course begins, it should be assumed that the application was not received by TEI.

An application will not be processed unless it is accompanied by payment, and no registrations will be taken over the telephone.
