Dear Colleague,

I am delighted to welcome you to TEI's Midyear Conference!

This year, in addition to examining the broad range of current tax, policy, management and technology issues that confront us as in-house tax professionals, we will explore, in this, TEI's 75th anniversary year, the evolution of our tax world through the eyes of key tax policymakers, regulators and practitioners, both past and present, who were instrumental in helping to shape our world.

We are honored to welcome former and sitting Assistant Secretaries (Tax Policy), Commissioners of Internal Revenue, IRS Chief Counsels and Chiefs of Appeals, among others, to share their perspectives on the past, assess the present, and share their thoughts on the future of tax policy, practice and administration – at home and abroad.

The full preliminary program is enclosed. To register for this exciting conference, go online to MY20.tei.org or use the registration form included in this package. For complete event details and to explore the searchable version of our program visit MY20.tei.org.

Of course, there will also be numerous opportunities for you to meet new colleagues, renew old friendships and visit with our sponsors.

We look forward to seeing you in DC!

Regards,
